The application deadline for new Visiting Students is December 1, 2023.

The add/drop deadline for courses is December 26, 2023.

In the case of withdrawal from a course, tuition and technology fee refunds will be made according to the following schedule:

- NO refund after the first calendar week of the term

What does it mean to “audit” a course?

A student who audits a course will have a transcript record of his/her attendance in that course, provided the attendance requirements for the course are met*. Students who audit a course may be allowed to participate at the discretion of an instructor. To audit a course, students must first apply to become a Visiting Student at Nashotah House, register to audit the course, and pay the course tuition and fees.

*Auditors are expected to attend every class period scheduled during the term.

Attendance of 90% is required to receive the grade “Audit”. At the discretion of instructors, unannounced and/or unexcused absence from class may result in a withdrawal from the course. Auditors may not bring guests to class.

What are the fees, and what are they for?

The $105 Community Life Fee is automatically charged to all students participating in a course with a residential week. This fee is for breakfast and lunch Monday through Friday, one dinner, and other community events during the Residential Week. Students participating remotely may email bursar@nashotah.edu to request a refund for the Community Life Fee.

The $100 Technology Fee is charged to students enrolled in a course for-credit.

Please note that the single dorm-style rooms are very limited. ALL Hybrid-Distance, Advanced Degree and Visiting Students are required to fill out a Housing Request Form if attending a class in-person, regardless of whether you will be staying in on-campus housing. The form also includes information about dietary restrictions and requests for meal accommodations.

Is the Refectory open during the Winter Term?

The Refectory is open when classes are in session. Delicious, freshly prepared food will be offered buffet-style for breakfast and lunch. Based on the information included in your application materials, our chef will make every effort to accommodate food allergies and sensitivities.

What are my responsibilities in the Refectory?

Eating together is one of the daily disciplines—and one of the real pleasures—that our faculty, staff, and students share with each other. One of the ways students, faculty and staff serve each other is assisting in the clean-up after meals. Each person will have an assigned role on the Dish Rota.

Is dinner provided?

Hors d'oeuvres will be provided at a Welcome Reception on Sunday evening. Dinner will be provided on Thursday evening for the Nashotah House community. The Nashotah House campus is several miles from the nearest restaurants and grocery stores.

If my family is staying with me, can they eat meals at Nashotah House?

The Community Life Fee only covers the cost of meals for the student. Guests/family may be included for $105 per person.

Individual Meals may be purchased via debit or credit card from a kiosk in the Refectory.

- Adult: Breakfast $12, Lunch $14
- Children under 3-14: Breakfast $6, Lunch $7
- Children under 3: no charge

Travel to campus

The closest airport is General Mitchell International (MKE), and the travel time to and from the Milwaukee airport to Nashotah House is 45 minutes. We recommend either renting a car or coordinating a ride from the airport with other students participating in the Residential Week. You may also utilize Uber or Lyft for transportation to and from campus (please note that fees normally range from $50-70 one-way). At times, rental cars can cost about the same or less than round-trip transportation service fees.

Campus visitors have also utilized a shuttle service to and from the Milwaukee airport called Go Riteway (www.goriteway.com). This option is more expensive at up to $200 roundtrip. If you do book with this service, please make them aware that you are a guest of Nashotah House.
